Overview

The ULCC Member Survey 2022 was developed and conducted by the Newfoundland and Labrador Statistics Agency (NLSA) in partnership with the Uniform Law Conference of Canada's (ULCC) Diversity and Inclusion Committee. The survey's purpose was to expand on the knowledge gleaned from the 2021 Member Survey to acquire a better understanding of the diversity of the ULCC's membership in order to cultivate an inclusive, respectful and welcoming environment that supports creativity and innovation. The survey was conducted under the authority of Newfoundland and Labrador's Access to Information and Protection of Privacy Act \(ATIPPA, 2015\).

Data collection occurred electronically and in two phases. The first phase took place in September and October of 2022. On September 8th, each ULCC member was emailed a unique hyperlink with which to access and complete the survey in the official language of their choosing. On September 15th, one week following the initial distribution, reminders were sent to those who had not yet participated. A second reminder was sent on October 20th.

The second phase of data collection occurred at the beginning of November 2022. Under the direction of the ULCC and in an attempt to improve upon responses rates, the NLSA sent a final reminder on November 3rd, requesting participation from those who had yet to complete the survey. This yielded one additional survey, for a total of 62. Data collection officially closed on December 6th, 2022.

Final summary tables and a report outlining the survey's purpose, methodology and outcomes were provided to the ULCC by the NLSA on December 29th, 2022.

Survey Highlights

The following provides highlights of the ULCC Member Survey 2022. For more detailed results, please see Appendix A: 2022 Summary Tables. Please note that due to the requirement for suppressed values to adhere with confidentiality and data quality standards, summary table percentages may not sum to 100%.*

MEMBER ROLE AND LEGAL BACKGROUND

- 1) Approximately 31% of respondents were jurisdictional representatives. Slightly more than one third (37%) were delegates at the annual meeting who were not jurisdictional representatives (hereafter referred to as “delegates”).
- 2) For those who were delegates or jurisdictional representatives (68%), half were part of a working group, and half were not part of a working group.
- 3) The majority of respondents (55%) worked with the Criminal Section of the ULCC.
- 4) Nearly two-thirds of respondents (63%) were called to the bar between 1990 and 2009.
- 5) Few respondents (13%) hold both civil and common law degrees, while even fewer (≈6%) are current or former members of a bar outside Canada.

WORKING ENVIRONMENT

- 1) The majority of respondents agree or strongly agree that the ULCC:
 - a) ... cultivates an inclusive environment. (84%)
 - b) ... cultivates a respectful environment. (89%)
 - c) ... cultivates a welcoming environment. (89%)
 - d) ... is committed to improving the diversity of its membership. (76%)

- 2) No respondents indicated that they had experienced instances of discrimination or harassment at the ULCC in the past year, although about 3% reported observing instances of discrimination or harassment at the ULCC during that time period.
- 3) Nearly 70% felt that no improvements were needed to cultivate an inclusive, respectful and welcoming environment within the ULCC. Of those who did suggest improvements, the most common recommendation (19%) was to improve upon diversity and inclusivity by recruiting and supporting BIPOC individuals in the roles of jurisdictional representatives, delegates, and members of working groups.
